INTRODUCTION

At Birmingham Children's Trust we are lucky.

We work with some of the most awesome, creative and engaging young people in the city.

Our job is to make sure these young people are safe and happy, and get all the opportunities they should get in life. Most of the time we work with families, but sometimes when families can't care for young people, we put other support in place.

The Trust's job is to deliver children's services for Birmingham City Council. This means we can continue to improve our services, but with more flexibility and a single focus. We have a clear sense of purpose and we know the level of service our young people deserve.

So when we needed branding for the Trust, we asked our inspiring young people what it should look like and what it should represent. And they told us about being brave and being different. They chose the colours and told us how they represented shining light, and warmth and brightness. And they chose the mandala to show energy and light and trust.

We told you they were awesome.

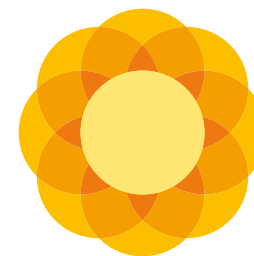

THE RULES

We don't like unnecessary rules and we don't like telling people off.

For some of these guidelines there is flexibility about the way we can do things and we are always happy to talk to you about what you need to do, and how we can help.

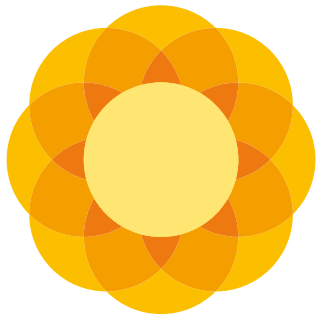

Some of these guidelines are in fact (secret) rules and there isn't any flexibility around them. That's because we need to make everything we do clear and simple, and accessible to all. We need to show consistency and high standards in everything we do, and we need our brand to become instantly recognisable.

If you want to chat about anything in these guidelines, get in touch with the team at trustcomms@birminghamchildrenstrust.co.uk

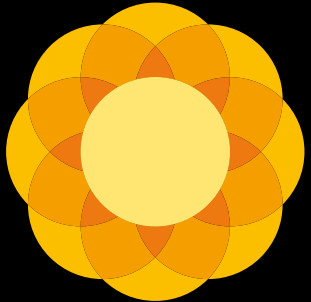

OUR PRIMARY COLOUR LOGO

Our primary logo is a colour mandala, a separating vertical line and the words Birmingham Children's Trust in black or white. The text and line will be black or white depending on the background the logo features on.

Exclusion zone

There is an exclusion zone around the entire outside of the logo that must be a clear space. The exclusion zone must not have any overlap of text, images or logos. The exclusion zone is indicated here by the height and width of the circle with the X in it. The circle is proportionally the same size as the circle in the mandala.

Our primary logo formats

The logo is available in different file formats. If you have a request from a partner organisation for a specific type of logo please email: trustcomms@birminghamchildrenstrust.co.uk Please put 'BCT Logo request' in the subject line.

Minimum size

The minimum size for the logo when reproduced is 45mm wide for print and 128 pixels wide for electronic use.

OUR SECONDARY COLOUR LOGO

For large print items we do have an alternative logo with the Birmingham Children's Trust text running through the mandala. This logo can be used on light and dark backgrounds and the text will change to contrast against the background. If you need any advice about this secondary logo please email trustcomms@birminghamchildrenstrust.co.uk

Colour options

OUR PRIMARY LOGO USAGE (1)

Contrast

Here are some examples of how the primary logo should and should not be used. Please note that using dark text against a dark background means that the text cannot be read. Please be mindful of this if you are using the logo.

Application on mix background

Do not alter in any way

Here are some examples of the primary and secondary logos being used correctly and incorrectly. Please note you should never change the shape of the logos or separate the text from the logo, or add to or change the text in the logo.

✗ Never stretch the logo

✗ Never condense the logo

✗ Never change the format of the logo

✗ Never angle the logo

✗ Never change the colour of the logo

✗ Never use the logo elements on their own

OUR COLOUR LETTERHEAD

Pre-printed letterhead paper is available from your PSS support, which you can use for letters and official Trust documents. Please see the correct format for letters, along with the font type, size and weight.

Body of letter

Use 'Arial' font 12 point as a minimum size. If your audience needs a larger font size please use a larger font size.

Please only adjust the footer to personalise your team, address and contact details.

Please DO NOT add any promotional or sales messages about your service or team in the footer.

Please DO NOT attempt to create a colour letterhead yourself. We want all colour Trust letterheads to be the same.

If you are sending a letter electronically you can download a Word template, featuring the colour logo and sample text, from the Trust Intranet. Go to:
intranet.birminghamchildrenstrust.co.uk/brandguidelines

OUR POWERPOINT PRESENTATION SLIDE DECK

Our PowerPoint presentation template consists of three slide types – a cover slide, a section/body slide and a contact slide. Please follow the template slides in terms of font size, font type and font colours.

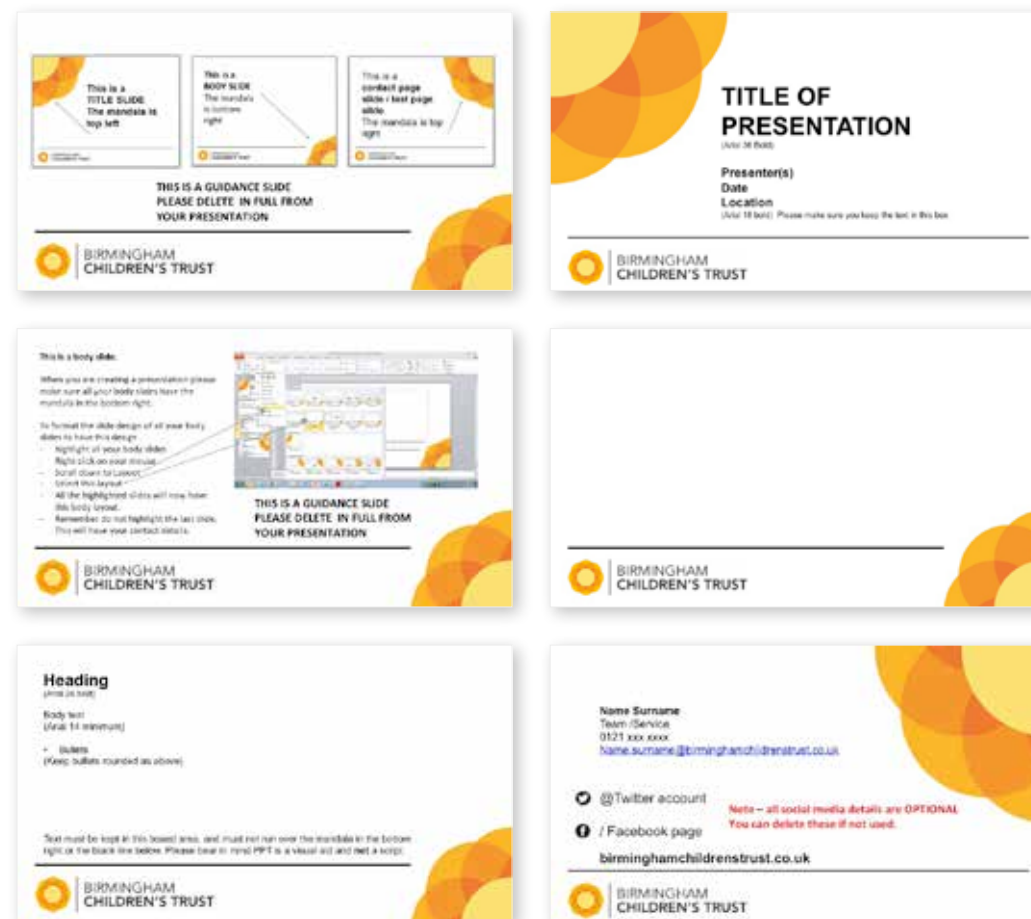

Please note:

- PowerPoint presentations are a visual aid to a presentation so please limit the amount of text per slide.
- All text and images/graphics should be kept within the dotted lines in the section/body slide.
- Only include images or graphics for which you have permission from the owner/organisation to use.
- Downloading images from Google could well be copyright infringement and lead to prosecution.

To download from the Trust Intranet go to:
intranet.birminghamchildrenstrust.co.uk/brandguidelines

You can edit the text on each of the slides, but you will be unable to move any graphic elements as they will be locked. The social media details on the contact slide are editable and can be removed.

If you need any advice about how to use these templates please email: trustcomms@birminghamchildrenstrust.co.uk

OUR ID BADGES

This is an official Trust ID badge, which should be worn with an official Trust lanyard.

If you have any questions about ID badges or lanyards please email: trustcomms@birminghamchildrenstrust.co.uk

EMAIL SIGNATURES

Our email signature and logo usage on email signatures

Your email signature should look like this. The font used is Calibri 11pt. You can also add an official Trust logo to your signature.

Please DO NOT:

- Change the font type or colour
- Add any additional image/electronic signature/logo/graphic
- Change the background look of the email

OUR BRAND (1)

Use of the mandala alongside the primary logo

On some items such as document covers, business cards and event materials we use a smaller section of the mandala. The positioning of this is different depending on the size and shape of the design.

Please DO NOT try to create/design any items yourself. If you have a design or print requirement that is not covered in this guide please email: trustcomms@birminghamchildrenstrust.co.uk and talk to us about how we can help.

OUR BRAND (2)

Working with our partners

We know that you work with a wide range of partner organisations and services to deliver the fantastic work you do. There will be plenty of opportunities to show this partnership working through design, both for the web and printed material.

The communications team is here to help and advise you when it comes to joint branding, so please get in touch if you have any questions.
Email: trustcomms@birminghamchildrenstrust.co.uk.

REQUESTING TRUST-BRANDED ITEMS

If you require Trust-branded items, such as leaflets, display stands or pull-ups for exhibitions or events, please contact: trustcomms@birminghamchildrenstrust.co.uk.

We can talk to you about the best way to get your messages across.
